REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

Every Township Represented—
The Permanent Organization—
List of Delegates.

The County Ticket Nominated.

Result at the Primary Meetings.

PURSUANT to call the 79 delegates to the Republican nominating convention for Macon county met in the circuit court room at 11 o'clock. It was a large and intelligent body of voters, and much interest was taken in the proceedings—the nomination of candidates for county officers and the selection of delegates to the state, congressional and senatorial conventions.

M. F. Kanan, chairman of the county central committee, called the convention to order, when Hon. R. H. Woodcock was elected temporary chairman and George M. Abbott secretary. Mr. Woodcock made a neat speech thanking the convention for the honor conferred.

On motion James Lichtenberger, W. T. Moffett and Jason Rogers were appointed as the committee on credentials.

While the committee was out Mr. Fred W. Clark was invited to address the convention, and he did so, delivering a ringing Republican speech in which he pledged his unqualified support to the Republican party and gave logical reasons why he was a Republican and loved its principles. He said he preferred greatly to march with Blaine and Logan, rather than with Jeff Davis and the Confederacy. Mr. Clark spoke about ten minutes, and was enthusiastically applauded. The delegates called upon various gentlemen to make speeches, but all declined to respond, Vail, Rogers, Vanleer and Grason begging to be excused.

DELEGATES.

The report of the committee was adopted as follows:

FOR SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

Evans, 18; Dillehunt, 12; Maury, 10; Chynoweth, 8.

Evans' majority, 31.

Mr. Evans was declared the nominee by a unanimous vote, on motion of Jason Rogers.

LABOR RESOLUTION.

M. F. Kanan introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The disturbed condition of labor throughout the country is causing immense loss of material wealth to labor and capital as well, and is a great and important issue that should not be left to the hands of those who have done with all other great national questions, therefore

Resolved, That our representatives in the general assembly be and are hereby instructed to further the enactment of laws which will protect the rights of labor where it shall come in competition with honest labor.

OTHER RESOLUTIONS.

The following introduced by J. R. Mosser was adopted:

Resolved, That our senators and representatives in the General Assembly be instructed to use their best endeavors to secure such legislation as will prevent the unjust discrimination practiced by the railroads in the matter of freight rates which tends to paralyze the business of so many otherwise flourishing places.

John A. Barnes of Decatur presented the following resolution which was adopted:

WHEREAS, It has been fully and satisfactorily demonstrated by over 100 years of trial and experience that the principles underlying the government of our common country are the most conducive to the government of a free people; and

WHEREAS, The people of this country have been denied the right of suffrage to enact and execute the laws necessary for their own protection and happiness; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Republicans of Macon County in convention assembled, That they expressed all countries, and especially those of Ireland in the present efforts to secure the inalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, are entitled to and should receive the earnest sympathy of the people of this county and the people of the State and its instance of freedom, sends greeting to the followers of Chas. Stewart Farnell, the Irish patriot, and to the grand old man, the greatest statesman of his age, Wm. E. Gladstone.

Mr. Barnes presented the following which was also adopted:

Resolved, That in the well rounded services of the Hon. S. F. Greer as Judge of the Probate Court of Macon county, the people thereof have had an honest and impartial and disinterested and a party faithful and consistent co-worker alike honorable to himself and beneficial to his party.

On motion of W. A. Vanleer the above sentiments were extended to the outgoing treasurer, George M. Wood.

After the reorganization of the county central committee the convention adjourned.

THE Primary Meetings.

The Republican primary meetings in the various townships in the county were held yesterday afternoon and last evening when all voted direct for the different candidates, the ballot determining for whom the delegates should vote in the convention.
